Our shipping department works to ensure that every order arrives in perfect condition and to the level of quality you have come to expect from Mars Direct, Inc.

For that reason, during the summer months, all orders are shipped using an overnight delivery method at no additional cost to you. Throughout the rest of the year, we utilize FedEx 2nd day air and "Rush Delivery" to ensure that the orders experience only a very short duration in uncontrolled environments.

Orders shipped via third party shipping will incur a handling fee.
